

WORDS TO LIVE BY...

Philippians 4:4-7

Living Based Upon Two Principles

- People ARE watching and listening to us everyday...
- Jesus IS coming back again and He's watching and listening to us everyday....

Living By These Principles

- We are to live filled with joy/rejoicing
- We are to live prayerfully being concerned but not worried
- We are to live according to heavenly peace a part from worldly peace

3 Words To Live By....

- Rejoice – chairo: a subjective and objective word
 - Objective means there is an object in which we focus upon that provides us with internal strength/fortitude/power (Christ)
 - Subjective means that we receive what is necessary to both help us be objective and able to exist according to what joy does...

3 Words To Live By...

- Thanksgiving – eucharisteo: where we get the word eucharist from meaning communion or intimacy with God
 - The ability to spend QUALITY time with God regularly being reminded of what he can both provide because of what He HAS provided...

3 Words To Live By...

- Peace – eirene: originally referred to an orderly, prosperous life made possible when there is no war
 - Word rooted in our relationship with Christ making our once shattered lives whole again

- Basic premise is to: live our lives knowing both that people are watching and Christ is returning; we do so with an inner strength that comes from our intimate time with Christ; causing us to be elevated to a higher standard of living!!!!
